

Definition: Liquor law violations include, with the exceptions of drunkenness and driving under the influence, all offenses related to alcohol. Some violations included are unlawful manufacturing, sale transportation of alcoholic beverages, bootlegging, operation of a still, and consumption of alcoholic beverages by a minor.