

The Northwest CHSR employed the fewest law enforcement employees, 2,145 or 6.5 percent of the total, followed closely by the Central CHSR with 2,168 or 6.5 percent of the total. The Central CHSR reported the lowest number of personnel and police officers per 1,000 population, 2.00 and 1.77 respectively.

The Southeast CHSR reported the largest number of law enforcement employees, 12,564 or 37.9 percent of the total, and the highest number of personnel and police officers per 1,000 population, 3.10 and 2.75 respectively. However, excluding Philadelphia County, which employs 62 percent of the law enforcement personnel in the Southeast CHSR, there were 1.92 total employees and 1.67 officers per 1,000 population for the remainder of the Southeast CHSR.

The Southwest CHSR, the second largest law enforcement employer, had 2.15 total employees and 1.87 officers per 1,000 population, excluding Allegheny County. Allegheny County, which includes the city of Pittsburgh, accounts for 55 percent of the law enforcement employees in the Southwest CHSR.

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) accounted for only 6.6 percent of the police officers in the Southeast CHSR and 25.1 percent of the officers in the Southwest CHSR, compared to 33.1 to 50.7 percent of the police officers in the four remaining rural CHSRs. In these rural CHSRs, full-time police officers would average one officer or less per 1,000 population without PSP protection.

Distribution of Law Enforcement Employees by Sex

Based on CHSR data, 82.3 percent of the reported 33,129 full-time employees were males, and 17.7 percent were females. Only 9.9 percent of police officers were women. During the past five years, female full-time officers have increased by 1.3 percent, while their male counterparts have increased by 10.4 percent. Women have filled at least half of the civilian positions for the past 33 years. In 2010, 64.9 percent of civilians were women.

Local police departments in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties employed the largest numbers of female officers, 1,581 and 250 respectively. The Southeast CHSR and the Southwest CHSR reported the highest percentage of female officers in local police departments, 16.5 and 7.0 percent respectively, while the Northeast CHSR had the lowest, at 4.5 percent.
